

Reflection for Today

Here we are, just a few days past the first day of summer. This time of year, with its periods of sun and relaxation, makes it easy to see that God rejoices in life. Fields are fast approaching harvest time. Gardens that adorn our homes and our parish grounds are filled with beautiful flowers and produce. As we drive about, we see scenes of life repeated everywhere. We also see abundant life in the family gatherings, picnics and reunions that are a part of this time of year. All of these remind us that God is a God of life. God love us and the world that he created and saw to be good.

We also know that our world is not quite the place that God intended it to be. Because of a human choice made long ago, our world is broken, less-than-perfect, a place where sadness, sickness and death occur all too frequently.

At the Eucharist, we have a glimpse of heaven, something that reassures us that God is a God of life. Here, God takes everything we bring to the table, hallows it, makes it holy and makes us the body of Christ. God hallows each of us, making us holy, sharing healing love with each of us.

Loving and holy God, I do want to find true happiness in life. I do want to strive first for the kingdom of God of which your Son, Jesus spoke so often and so lovingly. May I trust that your grace is truly all I need as I seek to be whole and holy. I open my heart to your gift of happiness, believing that nothing else will satisfy me. Amen.

In your prayers remember:

- * Our sick and hospitalized
- * Stanislaw Bartkowicz
- * Our elderly parishioners.
- * All those at the manor, lodge and homebound.
- * Our deceased friends & relatives
