THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST— JUNE (CZERWIEC), 22, 2025

25-26

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we celebrate the awesome mystery of the Eucharist. As with last Sunday's mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, the Eucharist is not something that can be proven logically, and we'll only get a headache if we ponder too much on the "how," or on the particulars of transubstantiation. Instead, on this day, let us celebrate not the "how" but the "why." The Eucharist is Jesus' promise of eternal life, a covenant with us that was ratified by his blood.

In today's Gospel of the Feeding of the Five Thousand, we see Jesus offering thanks to God before blessing and sharing the fish and the bread with the multitude. The Eucharist (a name taken from the Greek word for "thanksgiving") is a blessing of thanksgiving, offered within the context of Jesus' ministry of preaching the Kingdom and curing the sick, and fulfilled ultimately by his selfless death on the Cross. As we pray in the first Mystery of Faith acclamation of the Eucharistic Prayer, when Catholics believe that the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

And so, until he comes again, may we eat and be satisfied in the Eucharist, which empowers us to continue Jesus' ministry of preaching and healing. May our celebration of the Eucharist be a blessing of thanksgiving, even as we walk with him on the Way of the Cross.

The Secular Order of Discalced Carmelites: Would you be interested in discerning a secular (lay) vocation? Are you spiritually attracted to St. Therese of Lisieux or St. Teresa of Avila? Our group (not a prayer group) meets monthly at St. Andrew's Parish in Killaloe. For more information call Patricia at 613-756-2267.

Empties for Parish Playground - drop off empties at the tractor shed. Thank you.
